Chapter 11

1. Who did the man in Daniel's vision support and protect?
2. Who many more kings will appear in Persia?
3. Who will the fourth king stir everyone against?
4. Who will appear next?
5. How will this king's kingdom be parceled out?
6. Who will be stronger than the king of the South?
7. Who will go to the king of the North?
8. What will happen to this daughter?
9. Who will take this daughter's place?
10. What will he do to the king of the North?
11. In verse 16, after much war, where does the king of the North finally establish himself?
12. What will the king of the North give to the king of the South in an effort to make an alliance?
13. Where will turn his attention next?
14. What will happen on his way back to the fortresses of his own country?
15. What will his successor send out in order to restore the royal splendor?
16. How will the next successor, described as contemptible, invade the kingdom?
17. In verse 28, again after much war, what will the king set his heart against?
18. After losing heart, what will the king of the North set his fury against?
19. In verse 31, what will his armed forces do?
